

INTELEX 10

37024

CONFIDENTIAL

This document contains information of a research use of trained intelligence Analysts.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP INTELLIGENCE REPORT

25X1A

COUNTRY Rumania/USSRDATE: 25X1XINFO. [REDACTED]SUBJECT Russian Troop Evacuees DisarmedDIST. 8 January 1948

25X1A

PAGESORIGIN [REDACTED]"LIBRARY COPY"*SUPPLEMENT

25X1X

1. A report from Budapest states that when Russian troops are evacuated from Rumania they are disarmed when the troop trains enter Soviet territory.
2. Among the reasons advanced for this action are (a) that the arms are necessary for replacements leaving the Soviet Union for occupied areas, or (b) that it is a precautionary measure because of dissatisfaction of troops returning to the Soviet Union.

This document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50 U.S.C. 31 and 32, as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. It may not be reproduced in whole or in part by other than State, War or Navy Departments except by permission of the Director of Central Intelligence.

Document No.NO CHANGE in Class. ☐☒ DECLASSIFIEDClass.*Auth:*Date:APR 25
1978By:

013

REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARYBY CABLE*CONFIDENTIAL
CLASSIFICATION

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.

Next Review Date: 2008